OVERVIEW & TRADE AREA

SYCAMORE CROSSING

I-80 & SYCAMORE AVENUE – HERCULES, CA

OVERVIEW

- Core Bay Area project with an under-supply of retail services
- Vibrant housing market with active new construction
- Highest traffic volume intersection in the City
- Planned uses include a pharmacy, hotel, and shops, with remaining opportunities for theatre, health club and other retail or mixed use
- Pad and shop opportunities for restaurants, financial and retail uses
- Freeway visible

THE TRADE AREA

Hercules is situated where Interstate 80 and Highway 4 intersect, and is just steps from an extensive network of biking and walking trails. Hercules is convenient to all corners of the Bay Area, with new transportation options, including rail and ferry service, coming on line in 2018.

Anchored by the North Shore Business Park, and major employers such as Bio-Rad and Mechanics Bank, Hercules offers an outstanding mix of employment and newer housing inventory. There are over 1,700 new proposed, approved or under construction new homes.

A capable and well-trained work force is attracted to Hercules by comfortable, reasonably priced housing and diverse employment opportunities. Hercules provides excellent levels of public safety, recreational, and educational services to its residents.

In essence, Hercules offers just the right reasons to live, work and do business.
